

AUSTRALIAN 100KM CHAMPIONSHIP

The 100km supermarathon doubles as the Athletics Australia and Australian Ultra Runners' Association national championships.

Eligibility:

To be eligible, contestants must be citizens of Australia. Please note that visitors are most welcome to contest the event. In the case of the Australian road championships, conducted under the auspices of Athletics Australia, contestants must be a member of a Club affiliated with an Athletics Australia State Association. In the case of the Australian Ultra Runners' Association 100km championship, the contestant must be a member of the Australian Ultra Runners' Association.

Pacing:

Runners must not be paced or accompanied by runners not officially in the race, or by cyclists. Those who infringe risk disqualification.
